

COXEY'S ARMY PASS THROUGH ALLIANCE

THEY CAMPED IN THE OHIO TOWN LAST NIGHT.

The General Holds His Men In Strict Discipline and it Grows in Number Recruits Waiting at Pittsburgh Many Expected to Go From South Dakota.

ALLIANCE, Ohio, March 28.—[Special.]—General Coxe's commonwealth army passed a comfortable night here last night and started for the east at 10 o'clock this morning. They arrived here in the evening from Maximino. The leaders are confident that as the strength of the movement increases new recruits will flock under Coxe's standard of peace in large numbers. The trip from Louisville was uneventful. Perfect discipline was the order of the day. The country appears undisturbed by the advance of the army, the only indication of its passing being the small knots of country folk who gather in front of their farms. After a brief rest Coxe's army left here, going eastward at 11:10 a. m. It had been intended to remain at this place long enough to prepare the midday meal, but after a short consultation Gen. Coxe and his aids decided to push on to Alliance, where the army will go into camp. Nothing worthy of note occurred while the party was here. The men seemed to be in excellent spirits and were apparently enjoying the jaunt. Fresh donations of provisions were received at Louisville and small quantities along the route from there to Maximino, and as a result the rations dealt out will probably be increased in quantity as well as quality. Many recruits of a better order were picked up along the road and the army now numbers something like two hundred men.

CONTINGENT AT PITTSBURG.

Many Will Join the Army When It Reaches That City.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 28.—The railroad officers were busy last night keeping the Union station clear of men, who drifted into the waiting-rooms to seek shelter from the blizzard. There was a score or more of them and nearly all admitted that they were on their way to join Coxe. During the forty-eight hours the trainmen report the freight trains overrun with men heading for Ohio to join the commonwealth.

Texas Crowd at Sierra Blanco.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, March 28.—That portion of the commonwealth which has been attracting so much attention in western Texas spent yesterday at Sierra Blanco, ninety-two miles this side of El Paso and ten miles from Finlay. The governor has commanded the rangers not to interfere unless there was a resort to arms between the army and the railroad people. The railroad officials talk of appealing to the United States authorities should an emergency arise. The destitute condition of the army was partly relieved by supplies sent by citizens of El Paso and beavers contributed by rancheros. An effort is also being made in El Paso to raise money and charter a train to bring the army to San Antonio.

Stewart is Done with Coxe.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Senator Stewart says he does not propose making any response to Coxe's reply to his letter, saying that he was coming notwithstanding the remonstrance. "I regret," said the senator, "that such is the fact. The danger is that Coxe's army, while it may not be large, before it reaches Washington may become the nucleus of a gathering of hard characters from the large cities near Washington, who will be much in the majority as to give character to the whole organization." Senator Peffer characterizes the movement as childish.

Coxey Is Full of Fight.

MASSILLON, Ohio, March 28.—The claim of B. M. Everson against Coxe, amounting to $500, for which he has got out papers of attachment against the latter, is based on notes given by Mr. Coxe in exchange for an old locomotive. Mr. Coxe says if an attachment is served in Pittsburgh he will give the required bond and compel Everson to defend himself in the case now pending in court in Canton. Mr. Coxe's attorneys declare the report about the foreclosure of a mortgage of $24,000 held by Col. Pepper on his horse Acolyte is groundless.

Recruiting in South Dakota.

WOONSOCKET, S. D., March 28.—Col. W. S. Young, a former partner of Coxe's, is issuing an edition of his paper calling for recruits in South Dakota. He expects to raise a regiment of 1,000 men and to start with them from Woonsocket April 12, going east by way of Sioux Falls.

Wilson in San Antonio.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 28.—Congressman and Mrs. Tarsney arrived here from San Antonio, Texas, and proceeded on their way to Washington. They left Congressman Wilson and his son at San Antonio, where Congressman Tarsney says they will remain thirty days or longer, as Mr. Wilson seems to be gaining strength there. Mrs. Wilson and Miss Bessie Wilson went on to Washington ahead of Mr. and Mrs. Tarsney, taking the southern route.

WAIT FOR THE STAR.

Disappointed Spectators at the Breckinridge Trial Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Something interesting had been promised in the Breckinridge case yesterday and the courtroom was crowded. Even the corridors were filled with people anxious but unable to obtain admission. It was expected that Col. Breckinridge would take the witness stand but the audience was disappointed. The first witness called was Major Mocre, in whose offices there had been two promises made by Col. Breckinridge to marry Miss Pollard on May 13 and 17, 1893. It was proposed to contradict some of Miss Pollard's statements regarding these interviews.

Answering to the questions the major said that Miss Pollard and Col. Breckinridge had talked all the time, Miss Pollard seeming excited and doing most of the talking, while Col. Breckinridge appeared cool.

The second interview, it was developed under cross-examination, had lasted nearly an hour and had been less excited than the first, Miss Pollard doing most of the talking.

"This was the interview of the 17th of May, when Miss Pollard narrated that she lay on the sofa, Col. Breckinridge sat beside her, and afterward he took her hand in his and your hand and promised to marry her?" repeated Judge Wilson, aiming to emphasize an old score.

"Yes, sir."

There was a tilt between the attorney over the latitude which was permissible in the cross-examination, and Judge Bradley decided that since the defense had made the chief its own witness the cross-questioning could cover the whole field of the interviews. Thereupon, in response to Judge Wilson's last question, the witness said that Miss Pollard's manner had indicated gratification when the colonel promised to marry her.

Two expert witnesses appeared for the Kentucky congressman and their statements were directed to the support of the contention that the hand of Madeline Pollard penned the black-bordered letter written in 1884, inviting Col. Breckinridge to call upon her, which she has most emphatically disavowed twice on the witness stand. Great stress is laid by the defense upon the authenticity of this letter, not because it runs counter to the testimony of the plaintiff that Col. Breckinridge first called upon her at the Wesleyan academy of his own volition, but because they think if she can be proven false on one important detail her whole statement will be impeached. The signature to the letter also goes to support the opening statement of the defense on a minor detail—viz: That Miss Pollard had adopted at that time the middle name of Breckinridge. The experts declared that the handwriting was undoubtedly that of Miss Pollard. The Christmas card, said to have been pressed for nine years in the volume of Washington Irving found in the Norwood convent and which bore the words of "Compliments of W. S. D." was examined by the expert, who averred that from the appearance of the ink the inscription had not been on it more than three or four years. If this testimony is accepted as correct by the jury the plaintiff's case will be considerably weakened. To-day bids fair to be the great day of the trial, for, unless the cross-examination of two intervening witnesses is too long drawn out, the silver-tongued defendant himself will mount the witness stand.

Situation Bad in Pennsylvania.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 28.—The blizzard which struck western Pennsylvania yesterday and passed eastward last night left market and fruit growers bewailing its untimely appearance. They are satisfied that vegetables, peaches and early cherries are ruined and that great damage has been to pears, apples, apricots and plums. It is thought the crop of winter wheat is greatly damaged, as it is now exposed to the weather, the sun having melted the snow which covered it.

Passengers Have a Narrow Escape.

GRAHAM, Va., March 28.—As the east-bound vestibule was running at full speed near this city yesterday the engine left the track, plowed the earth for 300 feet and turned completely over. The engineer and fireman jumped and saved themselves. Two passenger coaches, a baggage car and the tender left the track. The baggage car was smashed to splinters. The baggageman jumped. The passenger cars did not turn over. No one was injured.

Cattle Are Doomed.

DEADWOOD, S. D., March 28.—A storm set in yesterday with rain and sleet, and finally turned to snow with high wind. In the evening it was still raging and bids fair to rival in intensity the storm of last week. Advice from along the Burlington & Missouri, as far east as Alliance say it is raging furiously. This will be apt to settle the cattle business, especially between Edgemont and Sheridan, as the storm came from that direction.

Kansas Banks Swindled by a Forger.

EMPORIA, Kan., March 28.—A man representing himself to be W. A. Gower, presented at the First National bank a check for $65, drawn on the First National bank of Hutchinson by M. Gower, bearing the indorsement of Junge E. B. Payton. It has developed that Judge Payton's signature was a clever forgery, and that the forger has worked banks all over Kansas in the same way.

OMAHA, March 28.—The hearing of the Union Pacific-Gulf case was resumed yesterday in the United States circuit court before Judges Caldwell and Sanborn. The court allowed the Gulf road to withdraw the demurrer already filed and substitute the answer, but the attorneys of the Union Pacific were granted the right to make replication.

The wage schedule case will not come up before Thursday. The employees filed their answer moving to "vacate and set aside the orders of Judge Dundy for good and sufficient reasons." Statements made by the receivers with relation to the wage schedule, etc., are denied. They also deny any intention of striking.

The Orion Finds Only a Few Remnants of the Vessel's Hull.

BOSTON, Mass., March 28.—A dispatch from the captain of the steamer Orion says that the United States steamer Kearsarge has been blown up and burned by the natives. March 15 the Orion was fitted out with every appliance needed to float the wrecked corvette off Roncador reef. The steamer reached the reef March 21, and found matters as above stated. The remnants of the hull below the water line were wrecked and broken, and showed the effect of the explosion. Previous to the destruction of the vessel the natives of San Andres island rifled the wreck of everything movable.

Wisconsin's New Banking Law.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 28.—Ten Milwaukee bankers have issued a circular stating that the law abolishing the days of grace in Wisconsin will take effect April 6. The bankers say: "We conclude that the act applies to negotiable paper issued on or after April 6, 1894, and not to paper executed prior to that date. We do not believe that the law can apply to negotiable paper in existence at the time it was passed, because it would impair the obligation of the contract; nor to negotiable paper executed prior to April 6, 1894, because it does not take effect until that date and there are no words evincing any intent of the legislature to make the act retroactive."

SENATOR COLQUITT'S FUNERAL.

Immense Crowd Attended the Last Sad Rites Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The funeral services over the remains of Senator Colquitt drew to the senate chamber yesterday a very distinguished company. President Cleveland was not present, but all the members of his cabinet except Secretary Lamont were there. Gen. Schofield represented the army, and Chief Justice Fuller and Associate Justices Harlan, Gray, Brewer, Brown, Shiras and White of the United States Supreme court, occupied seats immediately behind those of the cabinet members, and back of them were members of the diplomatic corps, including the Chinese, Japanese, Korean and Hawaiian ministers and representatives of the English, German, French and other legations. The family of the late senator and their immediate friends, occupied seats to the left of the Vice-President and fronting him, while the honorary pall-bearers, consisting of the committee of the two houses of congress appointed to accompany the remains to Georgia, formed a semicircle about the Vice-President.

DEMOCRATS FAIL TO MATERIALIZE.

They Lack a Quorum, and the Joy-O'Neill Case Is Not Settled.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—There was another day without progress over the Joy-O'Neill contested election case in the house, owing to the absence of a quorum of Democratic members, and at the close of the proceedings the case was as far from a conclusion as when the deadlock first began. Roll calls followed one another in rapid succession, but while there were known to be 230 members on the floor the nearest majority ever came to a quorum was 173—seven less than a quorum.

The majority members of the house committee on rules have prepared a special rule which is intended to dispose of two contested election cases to-day. It provides for coupling the O'Neill-Joy case and the English-Hilborn cases together, allowing two hours' debate on a side, each case to be voted on separately and disposed of without intervening motions. There were only seven votes lacking on the last roll call yesterday and enough democrats are known to be in the city to make the quorum.

Will Increase Pension Rolls.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The pension rolls will be greatly enlarged by a decision of Assistant Secretary of the Interior Reynolds. It is one of the most important made by the present administration and will admit to the rolls the names of a large number of insane, idiotic and permanently helpless minor children of deceased soldiers, where the pensions ceased by reason of the children attaining to the age of sixteen years prior to the act of June 27, 1890, the decision holding that the act of 1890 has the effect of restoring these dependent persons to the rolls during life or a continuance of the disability.

Davies Talks About Hawaii.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Theophilus H. Davies, the guardian of Princess Kaiulani, says a reign of terror exists in Hawaii, and that not even a small proportion of the people favor annexation to the United States. He thinks the provisional government is at the mercy of its army of aliens and spies, while the people of the country continue to have faith that the United States will still give them justice, in accordance with the recommendation of the President, and that the queen will yet be restored or his ward, Kaiulani, raised to the throne.

Not to Change the Constitution.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The proposed amendment to the preamble of the constitution "acknowledging the supreme authority and just government of Almighty God in all the affairs of men and nations" was finally disposed of by the house committee on judiciary yesterday when by a viva voce vote it was decided to allow the resolution to lie on the table, the only dissenting voice against such action being that of Representative W. A. Stone of Pennsylvania.

The Union Pacific Investigation. WASHINGTON, March 28.—Representative Boatner of Louisiana will insist on having the judiciary committee of the house pass on his resolution for suits against the Union Pacific. Chairman Reilly of the Pacific railway committee is equally determined that the resolution shall be considered. ### Considering Bland's Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The cabinet yesterday spent time discussing the President's veto message, which is expected to be sent to the house to-day. To Report on Nicaragua Canal To-Day. The agreement and contract will go to the court for confirmation to-day.

RAILROAD MEN IN CONFERENCE.

Discussing a Proposed Reduction in Wages on the C. and E. I. R. R. CHICAGO, March 28.—Grand Senior Conductor Garrison of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors and Grand Master Wilkinson of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, held another conference with President Carpenter of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railway yesterday morning. The proposed reduction in wages and curtailment of privileges was the subject of discussion. The meeting was amicable, each side showing a consideration for the other. Yet the trainmen feel that the railway claim of depression in business does not warrant the proposed cut which is to go into effect April 16. Several conferences will be necessary before the matter is definitely settled.

Chief P. M. Arthur of the Brotherhood of Engineers and Chief F. P. Sargent of the Firemen's Brotherhood, conferred with President Carpenter in the afternoon on the same subject from their standpoint. Nothing definite was settled and the conference will continue to-day. While the four organizations are represented each acts independently of the others, unless a deadlock ensues, which, in this instance, is not looked for.

"We Simply Went Over the Schedule."

said Mr. Garrison when questioned. "Nothing has been settled, and we shall have nothing for publication until every point in dispute has been adjudicated. I think, however, that an amicable arrangement will be the result."

General Brewery Workers' Strike.

DENVER, Colo., March 28.—A committee from the Grand Army has demanded of the government an investigation in the affairs of the Soldiers' and Sailors' home at Monte Vista on the grounds of misappropriation of funds. The state board of charities and corrections will probably take up the matter. The charge is made that more than $100,000 has passed through the hands of the trustees without any reliable record of disbursement.

End the Long Fight.

BEHRING SEA DISPUTE.

Another Modus Vivendi May Be Agreed Upon Within the Next Ten Days.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—There are substantial grounds for the statement that a new modus vivendi, covering the sealing season in Behring sea, will be agreed upon by the United States and Great Britain within the next ten days.

It is asserted that the administration is determined upon a vigorous foreign policy, not only with reference to the protection of the seals, but to all other matters affecting the rights and dignity of the United States. The sending of Admiral Walker with a strong fleet of vessels to Behring sea is said to be the first step in this direction, and it is intended as a quiet intimation to Great Britain that if she does not join the United States in carrying out the award of the court of arbitration this country will take the initiative and perform that duty alone, no matter what the consequences may be, either to the Canadian poachers or to the maintenance of our friendly relations with Great Britain.

MILLIONS LOST.

Reports from the South Show Wide-spread Damage to Crops.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Reports from various sections in the south and east show great damage to fruits and early vegetables as a result of the cold wave. It is expected that there will be a large attendance from Iowa.

This is but one day before the time set for the execution by Judge Chetlain when he decided Saturday night to give the assassin the benefit of a trial to determine the question of his sanity.

End the Long Fight.

CHICAGO, March 28.—Vice-President Newman's efforts to bring about an adjustment of the troubles between the Santa Fe and Union Pacific in order to permit of the restoration of western passenger rates were crowned with success yesterday. The passenger rate war is at an end and rates will be restored to old tariff figures both to California and Missouri river points as soon as it can legally be done.

Will Appoint Ex-Gov. Boies.

DES MOINES, Iowa, March 28.—Ex-Congressman Bowman stated yesterday that Cleveland will appoint ex-Gov. Boies to succeed McMillan on the interstate commerce commission. The place, he says, is to be offered to Gov. Boies and if he refuses will then be offered to Peter A. Day, at present a member of the state railway commission.

To Discuss the Whisky Trust.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 28.—Cincinnati distributors claim that the methods of the whisky trust have driven away trade from this city and will hold a meeting to-day to take action.

LOOKING FOR A MAN WHO WILL MARRY.

MISS SANFORD HAS A FORTUNE FOR SOMEBODY.

The Only Qualities That She Demands Are a Level Business Head and an Attractive Manner—How She Goes About it to Secure a Suitable Husband.

She is pretty, 21 years old, and is worth $50,000, but rich as those figures might cause her to be considered, and with all that such wealth can buy in the way of dresses and millinery, caramels, matinee tickets, and pug dogs, she is not happy or satisfied.

She yearns. She wants a life partner and she is willing to cut the $50,000 in two with him, give him an undivided half interest in it, and surrender her heart to him in toto.

But there is a proviso. The man who gives her his name and the love and protection of a husband must not alone have a full share and of personal beauty, and an agreeable disposition, and a record free from blemish, but he also must exhibit and prove good business ability. He must be capable of managing the five farms representing her fortune of $50,000, as well as providing that affectionate regard and loving ministrations from which the heart of the bucolic maiden yearns with an exceeding intensity of desire.

Applies to a Bureau.

Miss Sanford, the young woman in question, lives in Madison and her five farms, with her troublesome tenants to whom she refers are located in the townships adjoining. How long she has yearned for a husband she declines to disclose. In any event she seems to have concluded that there was no young man in or about Madison who would suit her fancy, for, despite the fact that an ordinary girl might find her affinity among the 1,500 students of the Wisconsin university, she sat down and wrote this letter to one of the matrimonial brokerage bureaus:

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 11.—Saw your ad. and thought I would write and see what you could do for me. I find myself alone in the world and possessed of means which, if I had a life partner, would make a happy home. My intentions are honest and I will give you a fair sum if you will find the right party for me, as I have but few acquaintances and like the method. I am 21 years of age, educated, and am called good looking. If you wish I can send photos and more particular description. Please answer soon as possible and let me know how soon you think you can find some one and if you can send photo and under what arrangements you will act. Yours respectfully, MAGGIE SANFORD.

This was a rich find for the matrimonial bureau, for it was learned by inquiry at Madison that Miss Sanford was really wealthy. She is the only daughter of an old settler who is now in his dotage, and for several years past she has managed all his real estate, including the five farms hereinbefore mentioned. The matrimonial broker accordingly invited her to come to select for herself from the swarm of suitors whom he guaranteed would be gathered at her feet as supplicants for her heart and incidentally for a half interest in $50,000 worth of Wisconsin farms.

Takes Kindly to Inspection. Miss Sanford took to the idea of personal inspection herself. She came to the broker's office and found a dozen eligibles awaiting her. She gave audience to each, but as yet has made no choice. Suitors from out of town are yet to arrive. Of these she is able to judge only from letters and photographs, which are often deceiving. So she delays her decision until she has opportunity for personal interviews with all her would-be husbands.

Miss Sanford is a fair looking young woman, but she does not affect the latest millinery creations. She is attired in rustic simplicity, and is a curious mingling of innocence and naive shrewdness. She said:

"Yes, I am looking for a husband, and I am pretty well fixed, too. Those two farms are worth $80 an acre, and the other three you couldn't buy for a cent less. All well stocked and improved, too."

"You see, dad's getting old now, and I have to do the whole business. The tenants give us lots of trouble, and I want a man who can tend to the business properly. None of the lads around Madison suits me, and so I advertised for a husband. That's the quickest and best way to get one, don't you think?"

Miss Sanford would not say her heart had not been touched as yet, but she admitted she was favorably impressed with several of her suitors and thought she would be able to make a choice within a day or two.

California Excursion.

Fifty-five dollars Chicago to Los Angeles and return. Leave April 5 to examine 40,000 acres of fine farming land in the Minneola Valley. Choice of government or railroad land, with perpetual water rights at $21.25 to $26 per acre. 11,000 acres already taken for actual settlement. Make your plans at once to go, and notify C. E. BOWLES, Jeffris Block.

Cover the Bare Spots.

This season of the year when you are changing and cleaning, you will find some bare spots that ought to be covered with a handsome picture or nice panel. Or maybe, some of your picture frames are getting old and a new frame would make the picture look better and make the room more pleasant. If you find yourself in this dilemma go to the Janesville Art Store 9 South Main street, and get a ready relief. Their stock is complete, with all the latest novelties, and the prices lower than they have ever been in Janesville. They are selling out.

A WELL KNOWN BUSINESS MAN. Who Has a Story to Tell That Will Interest Many People.

L. L. Leffingwell is engaged in the liquor business on Milwaukee street. He is well and favorably known throughout the city and county. In a conversation the other day he said, "I feel fully repaid for my treatment with Dr. McChesney. I had a most lost hope when I went to him. I am thankful for my present physical condition. My head was always stopped up and I caught cold easily. I would hawk and spit all the time. My stomach troubled me a great deal. I had an empty all-gone feeling at times then a full, bloated feeling. I was troubled with pains in different parts of my body, especially in my back and under my shoulder blades. I had no appetite, I felt languid, I had no life, no ambition. My work was a burden to me, I was restless at night. My nervous system was completely unstrung. I began to lose flesh and strength. I commenced treatment with Dr. McChesney and now I am happy to say there is a complete change in my condition. My head is clear. My hawking and spitting have stopped. My appetite is good. I awake refreshed in body and mind. My work is not only a duty but a pleasure. The tired feelings have left me. I am gaining flesh and strength every day. "I can only say that I gladly recommend Dr. H. A. McChesney to those who are suffering from catarrh. He has cured me and can cure you."

The last number of the Congregational entertainment course will be given on Friday evening, March 30, by home talent. Mr. and Mrs. Kline, of Janesville, will assist. After the entertainment a chicken pie supper will be served by the young ladies, in the old church. Program will begin at eight o'clock. A good time for all may be anticipated. Supper 15 cents. The first number in the course was given by the Deloit Male quartette and Mr. Wood, the reader. It was a complete success financially and as an entertainment throughout. ## TWO DAINTY SUITS FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

THE GAZETTE PATTERN OFFER INTEREST ALL.

Kathleen Waist Is Something That Will Be Appreciated By Girls of 12 to 14 Years—Rigby Suit Is For Those of the Younger Generation of Hopefuls.

Among new dresses for spring none are prettier than those The Gazette is offering in the form of patterns. This time the offer is for the rising generation. The Kathleen waist is a charming and effective costume, consisting of the "Kathleen" waist and a skirt made of straight breadths, can be used for school and afternoon wear, or for more dressy occasions, according to the material selected. It is adapted to all seasonable fabrics, silk, woolen and cotton, and is especially pretty made up in the plain novelty woollens now in vogue, combined with fancy or plaid silk and velvet ribbon trimming. The illustration represents fawn-colored cashmere with gayly plaided sash, and trimmed with black velvet. The waist has the effect of a silk blouse, but is all made upon a lining which fastens in the back; this makes it very simple to adjust and keeps it in place. If a plainer model be desired, the bretelles and the revers on the back can be omitted.

The size for twelve years will require one yard and a quarter of plain goods twenty-four inches wide, and one yard and three quarters of contrasting material, to make the waist as illustrated; and the straight skirt of four breadths will require three and a quarter yards additional.

Rigby Suit For Little Ones. One of the most becoming and useful dresses for small children is a sailor suit, which is suitable for both boys and girls of six years and under. It is generally made of navy blue serge of flannel and trimmed with white braid; but for general wear narrow yellow silk braid is preferable. The blouse can be made of white serge or flannel, or of white lawn or nansook with striped or colored pique collars and cuffs, so it can be easily laundered. Other popular combinations are gray and white, light blue and white, and navy blue and red. Very stylish suits for summer are made of galatea cloth, which is entirely of cotton and can be easily washed, and of pique, duck or heavy linen. The illustration represents a blue serge skirt and jacket, with a white serge blouse trimmed with black braid. A black velvet or corduroy jacket gives variety and is convenient for cool days.

Half of the pattern is given in eight pieces: Front and back of blouse, front and back of jacket, collar, two pieces of the sleeve, and skirt. Gather the bottom of the blouse and finish it with a belt, or hem it and run an elastic through to draw it in to the required size. Gather the sleeve top and bottom, between the holes. Lay the skirt in plaits all turned one way, according to the holes, and tack the inner edges of the plaits to a tape or narrow elastic placed across them about half-way down.

Cut the fronts of the blouse and jacket with their front edges placed lengthwise on the goods; the backs with their back edges placed on a lengthwise fold; and the sleeves, lengthwise. The skirt is made of straight breadths. Before cutting the goods be careful to read "Directions for Cutting," printed on the envelope. The size for four years will require four and one-half yards of goods twenty-four inches wide.

The size for six years will require five yards of goods twenty-four inches wide.

C RHEA HERE AS JOSEPHINE.

Part Is Considered the Strongest in the Famous Actress' Repertoire.

Rhea's next performance in Janesville will be at the Myers Opera House Friday of this week in the play in which she became most closely identified in the popular mind, "Josephine, Empress of the French."

The play derives its chief attraction from the development of Josephine's character and the exhibition of the admirable traits, which belong no less to the tender and affectionate wife and loyal subject, than to the majestic grandeur of imperial womanhood.

Napoleon in the play is a clear cut, incisive and interesting character, whose conduct is moulded by his belief in fate; in fact, the man of destiny, as described by most biographers.

Josephine is the dominant figure of the play, and is in every way a loving woman—a sympathetic mother, a loyal wife filled with patriotic zeal which partakes of the nature of religious devotion, and which leads her to make the greatest of personal sacrifices for the good of France.

Rhea has an excellent company and the performance should have a crowded house.

A NEW SCIENCE.

How a Man May Feel the Pain in Limbs That He Has Lost.

A well-known medical man was busy in his office when a patient called upon him who had a peculiar and interesting malady.

"Doctor, my arm twitches and aches all the time; I can feel the pain to my finger ends," he said, presenting a stump of an arm grown from the shoulder for an inspection.

"How did you lose your hand and arm?" asked the doctor.

"It was blown off in a mining accident."

"You are troubled this way often?"

"Constantly, doctor. I can at this moment feel the fingers of my lost arm contracting with pain."

"I don't doubt it," answered the doctor, calmly; "you must dig up the arm and have it burned, then you will not suffer any more."

"Doctor, you are making fun of me."

"I was never more in earnest in my life."

"I cannot find my arm. It is somewhere in Montana, returned to dust by this time."

"If that were the case your arm would not ache. As soon as that member is entirely decomposed you will lose the sense of pain. That is why I said it should be burned. There are sympathetic magnetic chords connecting it with your physical system; when every vestige of it is destroyed it will become a part of your astral body and give you no pain."

The man walked thoughtfully away, and a visitor in the doctor's office asked:

"Doctor, is that superstition?"

"No," said the doctor, in a convincing way; "it is science."

A God-send is Ely's Cream Balm. I had catarrh for three years. Two or three times a week my nose would bleed. I thought the sores would never heal. Your balm has cured me."—Mrs. M. A. Jackson, Portsmouth, N. H.

I have had nasal catarrh for ten years so bad that there were great sores in my nose, and one place was eaten through. I got Ely's Cream Balm. Two bottles did the work. My nose and head are well. I feel like another man.—C. S. McMillen, Sibley, Jackson Co., Mo.

It is astonishing what wide diversities of opinion there are on the subject of neckwear. That's why we a 1000 and one varieties of ties, from the tie that costs 25c to the tie that the most fastidious with a long rent roll might desire. From the tie that emulates the rainbow in its brilliance to the tie of but one color and that a quiet shade.

We are the only ones about town (as yet) showing the new and most beautiful "3 color effects." Strictly for nice trade. Don't cost so much but it takes a tasty dresser to appreciate the effect produced. The "stock" bow and 4-inch hand are taking very well for anything so extremely new.

We are showing them for Easter wear now in large varieties.

We would call your attention to our window where we are showing Eater hats, collars, etc.

Our Offer.

It was at first intended to make the prize in The Gazette piano contest an "ebony finish," instrument. The instrument chosen was as fine as the Shaw Piano Company build (and there are no finer. Only one change was possible--the substitution of a more expensive case. No better piano, of course, but considerably handsomer.

One week has satisfied us that this is the thing to do. The interest developed in the contest makes the

SHE BOUGHT HIS IMAGES.

Busts of Bacon and Shakespeare at Fifteen Cents a Pound.

You know these Italian peddler boys who go about with a tray load of plaster images on their heads? They make up a lot of the images in the dark and next morning they name them.

One of the peddlers went into a grocery on a storm-quiet day and begged with the customary pitiful eyes and guileful heart for a buyer. He was so persistent, he assured his hearers so emphatically that all the images were imported, he moaned so perfectly over their ruinously low prices, that the young woman who had charge of the pickle department asked him what he would take for a bust of Shakespeare. He said: "Two dollar."

"Who's this?" asked the fair patron. "Bacon," said the boy.

"How much for him?"

"Three dollar."

"I'll give you twenty-five cents for the two," said the girl.

"All right," said the boy, calmly and quickly setting the twain upon the counter.

But she was game. She bought them, solemnly declaring with beautiful heroism they were perfect likenesses, wrapped them tenderly in tissue paper and started home with them in the evening.

But the butcher boy from the other side of the store said next morning he had followed her part of the way home, and he vowed he saw her smash them against a fire plug and skip along without once glancing at the pieces.

Colors and Dinners.

It cannot be too strongly emphasized that "pink dinners," "yellow dinners," "violet luncheons" and the like are not "good style," although they are continually recommended to the public by writers on decoration. Yellow satin ribbon and yellow tissue paper flowers can never take the place with people "who know" of the spotless nappery, brilliantly polished silver and immaculate crystal of a well kept table.

We have a new house, a good one, that we want to sell cheap, and take as part payment $1000 of tobacco, of the crops of 1892 and 1893. Here is your chance.

We have excellent homes at $500, $450, $1,000, $1,200, $1,500; (this one has over 2½ acres of land right in the city, with good house, barn, well, cistern, fruit, &c.); $1,750 $2,000 and so along up to $10,000.

We have seventy acres good land, but cheap, to exchange as part payment on a good home. Land free and clear and will pay some cash difference on home that suits.

We have some money to loan in sums to suit. We want one first class loan of $1,000 and an other of $1,500. Five years a per cent.

This is thus, and, we are Yours Very Truly

Upon receiving his ballot, voter must retire, alone, to a booth or compartment, and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. If he wishes to vote for a person for a certain office, whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name in the blank space under the printed name of the candidate for the office and make a (X) cross in the square at the right on it. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen but so that the printed endorsement and signatures of the ballot clerks on outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot can have the assistance of one or two election officers in marking same to be chosen by the voter. The presiding officer may administer an oath, in his discretion as to such person's disability. The party designations and candidates for the different offices are as follows:

Seldom if ever has the republican party put forward a better or more capable list of candidates for seats in the common council of this city. Practical business men, men who have the confidence and good will of all, men who have the best interests of the city at heart and who have the courage and capacity to demand recognition in any body. A common council of such men is a safe body to be trusted with the expenditure of city funds. The republican aldermanic candidates are not only popular in their respective wards, but each stands high throughout the city. Such men are an honor to the city, and will be faithful to their trusts.

There is a suspicion of "heads I win, tails you lose," about John Winans' attitude in the judicial campaign. Having declared himself enthusiastically for Judge Bennett and for Mr. Smith he is now in position to throw up his hat whichever way the scale turns. Mr. Winans would seem to be safe unless a third candidate should get into the field so late in the day as to bar the Janesville attorney from getting his signature on the nomination papers.

The small hope that democrats felt of carrying the city election this spring was shown by their nomination for justice of the peace. Their candidate is without experience in legal affairs while republicans have named a young man of ample ability and thorough training. Mr. Richardson stands a good chance of leading his ticket when the votes are counted.

An energetic man, one who will keep the city's work well cleared up, is needed in the city attorney's office. Republicans have nominated such a man in T. S. Nolan, a lawyer who unites ability with zeal and determination.

Janesville wants good men in the county board next year. Important questions will be decided. The republican nominations for supervisor commend themselves without argument.

It looks more and more like a decided victory for James A. Fathers. Democrats say that if they must vote for a republican they prefer one who doesn't use them as a cats-paw.

Experienced representatives in the county board can save Janesville taxpayers a good many dollars.

Republican Committee to Meet.

There will be a meeting of the republican city and ward committees and the candidates on city and ward tickets at the office of Danwiddle, Goldin &amp; Wheeler on Friday evening, March 30th, at 7:30 p. m. sharp. Let every member be present. By Order of City Committee.

SNOW BANKS HELD STREET CARS

Three Disabled In Trying to Clear the Track.

Not until three street cars were totally disabled by burning out the motors did Superintendent Proudfoot abandon operations on the street railway this morning. The severe snowstorm, the heaviest of the season was too much for the street cars to contend with. They were started out from the power house on time this morning, but it was not many minutes before the first car was disabled and the motor destroyed. Another car was sent out and plowed into the snow drifts for a time, now gaining a little headway, but finally meeting the fate of the first. When the third car was disabled the superintendent concluded to abandon the road until the storm ceased. A force of laborers will be employed to clear the road, and everything will probably be in order tomorrow.

NOTES FROM JANESVILLE DEPOTS

Trains Were Not Delayed.

Strange to say, the heavy snowfall of last night did not delay trains to any extent on either of the roads running into Janesville. All of the morning trains on the St. Paul road were on time, and the same was true of the Northwestern. North of Janesville the storm was of less force, and railroad men had no trouble. The snow was soft and light and a few rays of sun will soon send it rushing down the gutters.

Mr. Baker Has a Spring Style Engine.

Engineer John Baker, of the Chicago &amp; Northwestern, will be running a jaunty switch engine tomorrow. The old "two spot" has been rebuilt and remodeled so that even her most intimate friends won't know her.

Crossing Gates Wrecked.

A Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul freight train ran through the crossing gates, at the junction of the two roads at Clinton this morning.

Operator Kelly Is Now Agent.

W. J. Kelly, the former operator at the Chicago &amp; Northwestern depot, has been made station agent at Mayfair. Many Janesville friends will be glad of his promotion.

Griffin As A Weather Prophet.

Yardmaster David Griffin of the C. &amp; N. W. offered seven bets this morning that it would clear up by noon and quoted authorities for his statement.

WHAT TO-NIGHT WILL BRING.

WISCONSIN Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., at Odd Fellows' hall, North Main street.

RECEPTION and Easter sale at Myers house parlors.

Good Goods Cheap.

With potatoes at 40 cents a bushel, Armour's hams at ten cents a pound, boneless breakfast bacon at 10 cents a pound, picnic hams at 7½ cents a pound, pickles at 15 cents a gallon, sour kraut at 15 cents a gallon, jelly at 35 cents a pail, California plums at 12 cents a can, apricots at 12½ cents a can, pears at 14 cents a can, peaches at 15 cents a can—all in syrup—can corn at 7 cents a can, lemon and vanilla extract at 5 cents a bottle, 25 bars best soap for $1.00 and good crackers at 5 cents a pound, there is no need of complaining about hard times.

Snow Not Enough For Us.

Sawing, two or three times, fifty cents per cord; splitting fifty cents per cord. JANESVILLE COAL CO., J. H. GATELEY.

[Will Talk of Japan.

Rev. Frank N. White, late of Sendia, Japan, will give a missionary address in the chapel of the Congregational church to-morrow evening. Twenty-Five Dollars Reward.

Some malicious person put a steel key into the fire alarm box 513, breaking the key in the lock, rendering the box useless for a time. A reward of $25 is hereby offered for the arrest and conviction of the person who thus tampered with the fire alarm service.

JOHN C. SPENCER, Chief Engineer.

DAY'S NEWS IN THE CITY.

Death of Mrs. H. L. P. Rowland.

In speaking of the death of Mrs. H. P. Rowland the Tracy (Minn.) Republican says:

Harriet Louise Parker Rowland was born in Janesville, Wisconsin, Oct. 2, 1818, and came to Tracy in 1880, where she has since resided. Mrs. Rowland was of delicate constitution for years and every expressed and anticipated wish was always cheerfully granted, she being the recipient of most tender ministrations from her family at all times. A few years ago Mr. and Mrs. Rowland visited California for the health of the latter, which proved beneficial. Mrs. Rowland was a consistent member of the Episcopal church, and the last services by that society in Tracy were held at their residence.

Mrs. Ada Phelps Smith.

Mrs. Ada Phelps Smith, wife of Frank B. Smith was yesterday summoned by the angel of death after a seven months battle with consumption. Long and patient had been the struggle but the disease proved the stronger and death came despite all that could be done. The husband has the sincere sympathy of many friends. The funeral will be held Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock and the remains will be carried to Darlington, her former home for interment. Especially sad was the blow that death delivered to the aged mother, she having attended in the past four years, the funeral of her husband and four daughters.

Suggestion on the Roster.

A correspondent who has read the papers during the progress of the roster trial suggests that the whole record of the case be printed in pamphlet form and a copy be presented to each soldier in lieu of a roster, thinking it would do more good, and be cheaper.

Enjoy Yourself Tomorrow Night.

Tomorrow night will be a gala one for the butchers and their friends. They will give a ball that promises to be the best of the season. Great preparations are being made and as it is an invitation ball no improper characters will be allowed. At 9 o'clock the ball will open with some cvertures which will last until 9:30 when the grand march will take place led by Prof. Williams, of Whitewater, the expert dancing master. The music will be furnished by Smith's orchestra of 10 pieces, and all those who are fortunate enough to attend the Butcher's Ball at the Light Infantry Armory tomorrow night will have an enjoyable time.

Store Open Until Ten O'clock.

My store will be opened this evening until 10 o'clock and all goods in the store will be sold at reduced prices, as on last Saturday during special sale. See ad. on 4th page.

MYSTERIES!

The Nervous System the Seat of Life and Mind. Recent Wonderful Discoveries.

No mystery has ever compared with that of human life. It has been the leading subject of professional research and study in all ages. But notwithstanding this fact it is not generally known that the seat of life is located in the upper part of the spinal cord, near the base of the brain, and so sensitive is this portion of the nervous system that even the prick of a needle will cause instant death.

Recent discoveries have demonstrated that all the organs of the body are under the control of the nerve centers, located in or near the base of the brain, and that when these are deranged the organs which they supply with nerve fluid are also deranged. When it is remembered that a serious injury to the spinal cord will cause paralysis of the body below the injured point, because the nerve force is prevented by the injury from reaching the paralyzed portion, it will be understood how the derangement of the nerve centers will cause the derangement of the various organs which they supply with nerve force.

Two-thirds of chronic diseases are due to the imperfect action of the nerve centers at the base of the brain, not from a derangement primarily originating in the organ itself. The great mistake of physicians in treating these diseases is that they treat the organ rather than the nerve centers which are the cause of the trouble.

Dr. FRANKLIN MILES, the celebrated specialist, has profoundly studied this subject for over 20 years, and has made many important discoveries in connection with it, chief among them being the facts contained in the above statement, and that the ordinary methods of treatment are wrong. All headache, dizziness, dullness, confusion, pressure, blues, mania, melancholy, insanity, epilepsy, St. Vitus dance, etc., are nervous diseases no matter how caused. The wonderful success of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is due to the fact that it is based on the foregoing principle.

Dr. MILES' RESTORATIVE NERVINE is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by Dr. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It contains neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

LAST NIGHT'S PARTY A BRILLIANT ONE.

MISS MACLOON ENTERTAINS
MOST HANDSOMELY.

Over Three Hundred Guests Throng the Armory and Enjoy the Spectacle of Handsome Costumes and Radiant Faces—Names of Those Who Were Present.

Take all the enjoyment any one person could gather in six hours. Multiply this by 350. Quite an imposing total you see. It represented more or less faithfully the aggregate of pleasure at the party given by Miss Augusta Macloon last night.

From 6 o'clock until 7 the throng that poured through the hallways of the Armory block was almost unbroken. Carriages were forced to move swiftly in keeping a clear space at the curb.

In the recess between the orchestra platform and the ladies' parlor, Miss Macloon received her friends. She was unsupported, except for the ladies who grouped about her informally.

On the big dancing floor nearly a hundred small tables had been spread and were waiting. They were beautiful in silver, cut glass and flowers. About these tables the guests were grouped and luncheon was served by Shurtleff. These young ladies presided over the tables:

Misses—
Jennie Ford, Helen Nash,
Beth Palmer, Margaret Woodruff,
Abbie Atwood, Alice Farnsworth,
Jennie Baker, May Valentine,
Agnes Shumway, Winnie Jerome,
Jessie Echlin, Clara Shurtleff.

Charles Sutherland, Harry Welch,
Frank McNamara and Sam Echlin were faithful Ganymedes.

While refreshments were being served there was music by Slocum's orchestra. The orchestra was supplemented by several from the Auditorium theatre in Chicago. The concert programme was as follows:

1. March—"Washington Post".....Sonsa
2. Overture—"Welcome".....E. N. Catlin
3. Grand Fantasia—Trump, Tramp, Tramp, with variations for cornet.....Rollinson
4. Waltzes—"In Old Madrid".....Josef Meisler
5. "Old Folks at Home"—Clarinet Solo with Variations—Nette.....E. E. Slocum
6. Sacred Selection—"Veni Creator," from Millard's Mass.....E. E. Slocum
7. Darius's Pastime—"The Lime-Club's Soiree".....(Drums by Prof. T. M. King)
8. Fantasia—"Long, Long Ago," with Variations for Flute and Clarinet.....Messrs. W. T. Cotteridge and N. E. Slocum

Dancing began a trifle before 9 o'clock and as the couples swept about the hall there was universal comment on the beauty of the costumes. Among the notable ones was a gray silk with black lace. Another, a creation from Worth's, was of brown crepe silk with lace. Light green silk with dark green satin ribbon and pink flowers made a bewitching combination, as did a gown of cream silk with cardinal velvet and duchess lace. Green mull was worn with lace by a young lady of graceful figure. The hostess was simply but richly attired in pale green silk with point lace and diamond ornaments.

From nine o'clock on there was but little pause in the dancing. About the hall sat many whose inclinations did not run in lines Terpsichorean. For them there were card tables and cosy corners inviting to tete-a-tetes. "Home Sweet Home" came all too soon and ended at 12:30 the most noteworthy party of the Janesville season. Among those who had the pleasure of accepting Miss Macloon's hospitality were:

REASON FOR PRIDE OVER THESE MEN.

REPUBLICAN WARD NOMINEES ARE WINNERS.

Five Candidates Who Will Make the Bower City the Best Kind of Aldermen—All Are Level Headed and Full of Good Business Sense—An Encouraging Outlook.

Not one of the republican candidates for aldermen this year was a seeker for office, the nomination being forced upon each one. The ticket is a winner from the start, and a fair vote should be polled for it—every candidate.

Up in the First ward every one speaks a good word for S. B. Heddles, the republican candidate for alderman. Democrats even grasp his hand and promise their votes. Mr. Heddles is popular not only in business but social circles; in fact he is a man who looks on the sunny side of life, and wants every one else to stand with him.

Hard At Work In The Second.

Orion Sutherland the republican candidate in the Second ward, is a member of the book firm of J. Sutherland & Sons, one of the oldest firms in the city. He has lived in the ward for many years, is familiar with all its highways and by ways and is acquainted with the needs of the ward. The responsibilities of public officers are thoroughly appreciated by him and he possesses the nerve and courage to do his duty faithfully and well. Every man in the ward knows "Orrie" Sutherland, and although the Second is a close district in these days of gerrymanders a full republican vote will insure a big majority. Hard work is all that is needed, as there is talk of democratic colonization schemes.

F. S. Winslow, the republican candidate for alderman in the Third ward, is hustling for the success of the entire city republican ticket. He even forgets that he is running himself.

"I am working for the whole republican ticket," says Candidate Winslow. "The people of the Third ward nominated me for alderman, I suppose, because they wanted me in that office, and I have no fears concerning the election. Therefore I propose to put in my work for Jimmy Fathers and the boys on the whole ticket." This is characteristic of Mr. Winslow. He is enthusiastic in whatever he takes in council. Few men in the ordinary walks of life command greater respect than Mr. Gaulke. Keen-minded, alert, industrious and honest, he has won the admiration with the good will of his fellow men. His friends insisted that he was the proper person to represent them in the council and when his name was mentioned in caucus, there was instant enthusiasm, and his nomination was made without dissent. A trade between Lutz and Cunningham is being worked by democrats in an effort to beat him but it will be unsuccessful.

George Brink comes from a ward where they used to say there were not republicans enough to hold a caucus.

"It isn't so any longer," said Mr. Brink. "Republicans are getting numerous down in the Fifth and you will hear from us this year."

Mr. Brink is general salesman for the Jeffris Lumber Company and is "business" all the way through. His friends expect to see him roll up a vote down in the Fifth that will surprise the old timers.

YOUNG MEN COMMEND BROWN.
Republican Club Adopts Resolutions Bearing Upon His Withdrawal.

A dozen stirring addresses were made to the biggest gathering of young republicans seen in Janesville for many days, at the municipal court rooms last night. It was an adjourned meeting of the Y. M. R. club and President H. S. Sloan was in the chair. A resolution was adopted commending John Brown for withdrawing from the field as an independent candidate and thus doing his part to strengthen the straight republican ticket.

LUTZ RUINED LOCUST STREET.

Tax-Payers Had to Rise Up and Protest Against His Tactics.

Bad streets are destroying the patience of Fourth ward tax payers. Locust street especially is in deplorable shape. Commissioner Hanthorn is not blamed for it, for voters realize that the streets of the ward are under the guardianship of two staunch democratic aldermen, and that the street commissioner has no authority to perform work there in the absence of orders from the common council. They are inclined to say, moreover, that the condition of Locust street is attributable to the "road-building skill" of Alderman August Lutz. Locust street was worked by him during the last year of his aldermanic term, and the roadbed was so outrageously disfigured that his successors have hesitated to expend ward funds to remedy the mess and put the road in proper shape, hoping that in time the heavy rains would wash the sand down the grade. The democratic candidate for street commissioner, while presuming to boss the street work of his ward as alderman, made many expensive blunders. He was on one or more occasions forced to stop his wreckless damaging of street property. Henry Gaulke, who is to be alderman in the Fourth ward for the next two years will not give people occasion to take any measures of this kind.

A. H. SHELTON FOR SUPERVISOR.

Vacancy Left by F. A. Vankirk's Withdrawal Filled This Afternoon.

The republicans of the Fourth ward held a caucus at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Tarrant & Osgood's grocery store, Dr. Frank Pember in the chair, and Charles Blay keeping the records. A. H. Sheldon was nominated for supervisor in place of Fred A. Vankirk withdrawn.

LONG HOURS NOT THE COMPLAINT.

Cleveland Has Reduced Them From Eight Hours to Nothing.

H. L. McNamara started for Monroe this morning. He said that while perhaps people couldn't use clothespins for the purpose for which they were made today, they might want to buy them for firewood they were so cheap. Incidentally he told a story about an old man who was talking to Mr. Gould, a member of the firm that Mr. McNamara travels for. Hard times was the subject one when asked what his politics were, the old man said.

"I am not a democrat. It took the republican party thirty years to get the working men's day down to eight hours but the democrats reduced it to nothing in six months!"

That left nothing else to be said.

THE Henrietta club will positively give the last invitation masquerade at the Armory Monday, April 2.

Good Men From Bad Wards.

Henry Gaulke, the republican candidate for alderman in the Fourth ward, is the coming man as representative in the council.

Hand, be it a Fourth of July celebration, a grocery house, or politics. His nomination is fortunate, as the Third ward people are assured of a capable representative in the council.

Some of the colors in spring millinery are suggestive of mint julep jags.

John Bauman of Racine, is in the city visiting his mother, Mrs. John M. Bauman.

The republican party stands up boldly for honest and economical city government.

George Turner has gone to Mexico to work at his profession, that of a photographer.

"He's shy some blue chips in his nut," is the newest way of saying that a gentleman is crazy.

Those holding invitations to the Henrietta masquerade April 2, can secure them at Smith's pharmacy.

Mrs. O. D. Van Dusen, of Prentice, Mo., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. D. Arnold, on Fourth avenue.

C. N. Vankirk and Cal. Rose are home from California, they arriving in Janesville with the storm.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church will give a church sociable at the church parlors Friday evening, March 30th. All are invited.

A JANESVILLE MAN
SHOT AND KILLED.

William Clifford, who formerly lived here.

Guy Olmstead Was the Murderer and the Tragedy Occurred at the Corner of Clark and Madison Streets, Chicago at Noon—Both Were Mail Carriers.

William Clifford, formerly of this city, but of late years a letter carrier in Chicago, was shot and killed at noon to-day, at the corner of Clark and Madison streets in Chicago, by Guy T. Olmstead. Olmstead was also a letter carrier but was discharged from the postoffice last December. Clifford preferred charges against him. To-day they met and Olmstead fired three shots, all taking effect.

Clifford moved from this city to Madison and from there to Chicago. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Clifford, formerly lived in Evansville, but are now in Madison. Alvin Clifford and Cecil Clifford, brothers of the dead man, live on Jackson street, two doors south of Milwaukee street. Cecil works for Skelly & Wilbur.

Clifford lived here until about two years ago. He went from here to Madison where he attended school.

"We knew nothing of Will's trouble with Olmstead," said Alvin Clifford this afternoon. It will be an awful blow to the folks.

Caught in the Act.

Yesterday afternoon several ladies, wives of business men, were caught in the act of looking with admiring eyes at the beautiful display of cut glass in the Milwaukee street show window of A. F. Hall & Co., "the reliable jewellers." The sad part of it is that the husband of one of the ladies has been accused of telling his wife on birthdays and anniversaries, that he would have bought something for her—only "he didn't know what to buy."

SOMEWHAT HUMOROUS

Has Them All.

A well-known writer of humorous prose and verse was talking with a bibliomaniac a day or two ago, when the latter said:

"By the way, I am collecting first editions of American authors. I want to add your first book to my collection. Have you any copies of the first edition?"

"Yes," answered the author, "I have all of them."—Critic.

Harry Believed in English First.

Mother—Let me see what progress you are making in your language lessons, Gracie.

Gracie (seven years old)—Oh, I have learned to say: "Thank you" and "if you please" in French.

Harry—That is more than you ever learned in English.—Brooklyn Life.

An Object of Charity.

Tramp (piteously)—Please help a poor cripple!

Kind Old Gentleman (handing him some money)—Bless me! why, of course. How are you crippled, my poor fellow?

Tramp (pocketing the money)—Financially, sir.—Truth.

Overheard.

First Woman (over the back yard fence)—Mrs. Jinks told me yesterday she thought she was the most unhappy creature living.

Second Woman—That's just like her, always trying to outdo her neighbors.—Washington Star.

Had Studied Doll Anatomy.

Little Ethel (after the party)—I don't feel well a bit.

Mamma—What ails you, dear? Little Ethel—The big weight that makes my eyes open an' shut has tumbled down onto my 'tummy.—Good News.

VERY MUCH IN DOUBT.

"What's the matter, Tom?"

"I'm in trouble. I don't know whether I ought to die while I'm young and become an angel or wait an' grow up to be a man an' have a mustache an' side whiskers!"—Life.

For a Young Poet.

"'Twas 'Trifles Light as Air' you took As title for your new-born book. I've read it, and, no one will doubt it, The title's the best thing about it."—Judge.

Strange Coincidence.

"—!—!" exclaimed the man as he fell into an open coal hole.

"That's strange," remarked a bystander.

"What's strange?" snorted the man, as he climbed out.

"You're the twentieth man who's fallen in there this morning and they've all made the same remarks."—Hallow.

Man's Heavy Burden.

Mrs. De Science—If I am able to carry the baby around, I should think you ought to be.

Prof. De Science—You forget, my dear, that an average man has to carry an atmospheric pressure of fifteen tons, while women, being smaller, do not have to carry over ten or twelve tons.—N. Y. Weekly.

A Cut at the Gordian Knot.

He—Didn't you promise me at the altar to love, honor and obey me?

She—Yes, dear.

He—And didn't I tell you you mustn't give twenty dollars for that bonnet?

She—Yes; but I found I could not love or honor you if I obeyed you.—Truth.

Not In.

"Is the mistress of the house in?" inquired the peddler.

"No," replied the tired-looking, timid woman who had gone to the kitchen door to answer the knock.

"It's her afternoon out."—Chicago Tribune.

The Tailor Caught On.

Dudley Slowpay—This coat doesn't fit. Tell that tailor when you see him that I say he is an ass.

Valet—He knows it already, sir. He admitted it when he came here expecting to collect his bill last week.—Texas Siftings.

It Couldn't Have Hurt Him Much.

"Ya'as," said Cholly, "they were afraid I was going to have brain fever, doncherknow."

"Oh, is that all," said Miss Smart; "I understood that you had just escaped a serious illness."—N. Y. Press.

Birney's Catarrh Powder

REV. FATHER CLARKE, Sec'y to the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Columbus, Ohio, writes:

GENTLEMEN:—I cannot say enough for your Powder. It has cured me of an aggravated attack of catarrh when nothing else could help me. Am delighted with it. All my friends to whom I administered samples are quite enthusiastic over it. The post sisters speak most encouragingly of their use of it in the Hospital under their care. I will do anything to speak a good word for the remedy to help others who are suffering.

M. E. FREDERSON, Custodian U. S. Appraiser's Stores, Chicago, writes:

GENTLEMEN:—Being almost entirely deaf for a number of years past and getting no relief from many so-called cures which I tried, was induced by a friend to try Dr. Birney's Catarrh Powder for my deafness. Have recovered my hearing held 18 inches from my ear. I look upon it as a positive cure for deafness and have recommended its use to many of my friends and can say I have never heard of a case where it has failed to relieve.

The Talented Parisian Singer and Instrumentalist.

The best professors of singing to be found in the French capital are women, and of these Mme. Marchesi is probably most successful. Among the famous vocalists who received instructions from this noted teacher are Melba, Calve, Nevada, Eames, Gerster, Di Murska, Tremelli and others. Mme. Marchesi, who is a German by birth, was herself a great mezzo-soprano and made several successful operatic tours in Europe.

Her pretty house in the Rue Jouffroy is well known in all artistic circles, and her salon is frequented not only by all the leading composers and musicians of the day, whether residents in Paris or visitors from other countries, but by the best known in various walks of life. Madame gives very few private lessons, her instruction being almost entirely given in classes. On lesson days she has the assistance of two admirable professors, M. Mangin and Signor Panzani, who preside at the piano while madame gives her undivided attention to the singer, who may be preparing for her debut, or may be a full-fledged prima donna, perhaps staying in Paris with the object of studying a new role.

JOCKEY TONY HAMILTON.

The Colored Rider May Not Have a Chance this Season.

A jockey who will be at leisure a great deal of the time this season, unless reports are not true, is Tony Hamilton. This rider has shown himself to be as erratic as a jockey can be, but the mistakes made by Tony are due to lack of proper judgment more than a desire not to do right, chirps the Chicago Post. Hamilton has ridden for the best stables in the east, including Mike Dwyer's, and he might have closed a three years' contract with a well-known trainer had he not been anxious to "bleed" the horseman out of too much. Believing that it would be to the advantage of his stable to have Tony for a rider, the trainer-owner made the black boy an offer. Hamilton, who, like most men of his class, could not make any but a precarious living were racetracks to be abolished, gravely viewed the generous offer and asked time to look over the contract with his wife. Later he said the contract suited if the salary could be increased by $1,000 per year. This the owner readily assented to, and again he allowed Hamilton to talk the matter over with his wife. Once more Hamilton sought to "bleed" the owner, and he declared that if a cottage were constructed and furnished at the track for himself and wife he would ride for the stable. But Hamilton was too mercenary. Meanwhile he had been giving some very bad exhibitions of riding, and the owner decided that he did not want Hamilton at any price. To say that the black boy was surprised when he was informed that the stable could get along without him is putting it mildly. In view of these circumstances, the advice of a horseman who has his eye upon the jockey for the season, if he can get a reasonable call, is: "Ride to win for your employer, and be satisfied with a fair remuneration."

A way to lose money is to go outside of town and buy a carpet or several without even looking over home stock first, which are always large, and returning home, only to find out that you could have done fully as well here, often better, and out the expense of going and coming. Is it wise?
